

EXERCISE 1

Circle the correct answers.

- The main proper noun in the first paragraph is _____.
 - London
 - John Nash
 - Trafalgar Square
- The sentence "One of London's most famous landmarks, Nelson's Column, stands in the Square" is a/an _____.
 - fact
 - opinion
 - assumption
- A "plinth" is _____.
 - a pillar
 - a statue
 - a base on which a statue stands
- How many plinths stood empty in Trafalgar Square?
 - one
 - two
 - four
- How did they calculate that only 2,400 people can perform on the fourth plinth?
 - 12X200
 - 100X24
 - 300X8
- What can the Plinther do on the fourth plinth?
 - Anything that is legal
 - Eat, sleep, sing, dance
 - Praise Gordon Brown
- Many of the works on show have been provocative and "controversial", meaning _____.
 - creating a lot of excitement
 - creating a lot of publicity
 - causing a lot of disagreement
- The One and Other is likened to _____.
 - a contemporary art performance
 - a conservation of land use
 - a joke

EXERCISE 2

Answer the following questions.

1. Circle the possessive noun in this sentence:

As with many of Gormley's projects, the public's response was overwhelming.

2. Circle the adverb in this sentence:

A specially adapted computer lottery system randomly selected the final 2,400 Plinthers in such a way that they fairly represented every area of the entire country.

3. Circle the verb in this sentence:

Many decided to stand and recite poetry, dance, remain perfectly still, address the crowd, eat, play instruments or just take a nap.

4. Circle the adjective in this sentence:

Four massive bronze lions guard the fountains that adorn the corners of the Square.

5. Circle the common noun in this sentence:

But in the absence of a statue of a famous general, politician or other public figure, the plinth stood empty for many years.

6. Circle the proper noun in this sentence:

And it is here that Londoners congregate at midnight on New Year's Eve to welcome in the New Year in style.

GROUP ACTIVITY

1Malaysia is a concept created by Prime Minister, Dato' Seri Najib Tun Razak to promote unity and harmony among all races living in Malaysia. To bring Malaysians together as one, Najib's administration cabinet has officially declared and begun to drop "race" from most official forms and documents. The idea is for all Malaysians to have a common identity, irrespective of religion, race, gender and status. So, whether you are Malay, Chinese, Indian, Iban, Kadazan or Bidayuh, you deserve an equal chance to have your say and opportunities to develop as a citizen in Malaysia.

Now, imagine yourself a "plinker". What would you do or say to bring 1Malaysia closer to reality? What advice or changes would you suggest? What song would you sing to show unity amongst all races? What artwork would you produce?

Rakyat Didahulukan, Pencapaian Diutamakan